

Jersey Boys: The Songs You Love and Didn't Realize You Knew

By Jen Barraza

Justin Wolfe Smith* as Tommy DeVito, Daxton Bloomquist* as Bob Gaudio, Noah Cornwell* as Frankie Valli, and Noah Archibald* as Nick Massi in Jersey Boys
(Photo by Brennen Russell)

From the moment the first note hits, Jersey Boys electrifies audiences with the unmistakable sound of Frankie Valli & The Four Seasons. This Tony®, Grammy®, and Olivier Award-winning musical isn't just the story of a band—it's the soundtrack of a generation, packed with songs that have stood the test of time.

While everyone recognizes their back-to-back hits, “Sherry”, “Walk Like a Man”, and “Big Girls Don't Cry”, many are surprised to discover just how many of these timeless hits they already know and love.

Here are just a few songs from Jersey Boys that might spark a memory:

“Can't Take My Eyes Off You” – This romantic anthem has been covered by everyone from Lauryn Hill to Andy Williams and remains a go-to for love scenes in films and television.

“Oh, What a Night (December 1963)” – A song that continues to fill dance floors at weddings, reunions, and parties, this infectious hit brings instant nostalgia.

“My Eyes Adored You” – A slow-burn ballad that tells a tale of love and longing, this song is one of the Four Seasons' most enduring hits.

“Let’s Hang On!” – A foot-stomping anthem of resilience and love, its powerful chorus has been stuck in people’s heads for decades.

“Rag Doll” – This chart-topping hit with its soaring falsetto showcases the distinct sound that set Frankie Valli & The Four Seasons apart.

Whether you’re a lifelong fan or discovering these classics for the first time, Jersey Boys is a must-see event that will have you singing along and dancing in your seat. Don’t miss the chance to experience the music and story of one of the most beloved groups in rock ‘n’ roll history!