

RESOURCES FOR ACCOMPANIMENT TRACKS, VIDEO EDITING, AND SOUND BALANCING

Although not required, below is a list of some suggested instructional videos and resource links for your convenience.

Suggested resources for Phoenix-based accompanist for audition tracks.

- Click on the name and a contact email will populate. Please contact the artist below for rates (note: the following artists are independent artists from The Phoenix Theatre Company and although they are suggested, The Phoenix Theatre Company does not promote their services above and beyond any artist you choose).
 - William Sawyer
 - Joshua Condon
 - Greg Paladino
 - Lincoln Wright
 - Randi Ellen Rudolph

Additional Resources for getting recordings or tracks for your vocal auditions. Please follow the links for rates.

- Accompanist Connection NYC (LINK to Facebook group)
- PianoTrax (LINK)
- APPcompanionist (for iOS only but Android coming) (LINK)
- YouTube also has instrumental music available by searching the “song name” and “instrumental” (ex: In the Heights Instrumental) (LINK)

Recording and balancing the sound:

- Instructional video by Ashton Corey using GarageBand (IOS only) (LINK)
- Instructional video by CyberDog Studios using Audacity for the PC (LINK)
 - CyberDog Studios has a variety of videos if you need further help. The link above is a video of tips for using the program.

Putting together and editing your video audition:

- In iMovie: A tutorial (LINK) IOS ONLY
- IN Shotcut: A tutorial (LINK) IOS AND PC